SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

COUNTS 1-13

(Mail Fraud)

The Grand Jury for the District of Maryland charges:

At all times relevant to this Indictment:

1. Defendant WILLIAM G. HILLAR, resided in Anne Arundel County, Maryland, and is the principal of Bill Hillar Training..

The Scheme to Defraud

2. From in and around 1998 and continuing until in or around January 25, 2011, in the District of Maryland and elsewhere, the defendant,

WILLIAM G. HILLAR

knowingly and willfully devised and intended to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud the Monterey Institute of International Studies, the University of Oregon, the Federal Executive Board of Los Angeles, and others to obtain money and property by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises ("the scheme to defraud").

Object of the Scheme to Defraud

3. It was the object of the scheme to defraud that defendant WILLIAM G. HILLAR falsely represented his professional and educational credentials to public and private organizations including universities, government agencies, law enforcement organizations and others in order to obtain payment for leading workshops, teaching courses and giving speeches.

Manner and Means

4. HILLAR has been teaching, leading workshops, giving speeches, and conducting training for public and private sector clients for at least the past twelve (12) years under fraudulent pretenses.
5. HILLAR conducts these activities through a business named "Bill Hillar Training." Bill Hillar Training is also the registrant for <billhillartraining.com>.
6. HILLAR has advertised himself as a speaker and trainer through various media including the world wide web. The website <billhillartraining.com> provided the following false biographical statement for HILLAR, "William G. Hillar is a retired Colonel of the U.S. Army Special Forces. He has served in Asia, the Middle East, and Central and South America, where his diverse training and experiences included tactical counter-terrorism, explosive ordnance, emergency medicine and psychological warfare." Further, a resume provided by HILLAR to at least one of his clients falsely states that HILLAR received a Ph.D. from the University of Oregon.

7. From on or around 1998 to 2010, the following organizations, among others, paid HILLAR at least $164,057.70 for teaching, leading workshops and speaking:

ORGANIZATION	DATE	AMOUNT
University of Oregon	2002-2010	$33,025.00
Monterey Institute of International Studies	2005-2010	$32,500.00
Federal Executive Board of Los Angeles	2000-2010	$27,140.00

U.S. Department of Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs	3/11/2010	$2,135.50
California Fire Chiefs Association	10/4/2007	$1,980.81
City of Lander, WY	8/25/2010	$1,800.00
City of Redmond	6/10/2010	$1,609.00
Georgia Terminal Agency Coordinators (TAC) Conference	10/3/2008	$1,240.50
FBI Salt Lake City Division	4/21/1998	$1,010.00
FBI Chicago Division	6/4/2002	$1,000.00
Freemont County Community College	9/23/2010	$1,000.00
Illinois Drug Enforcement Officers Association	3/10/2002	$850.00
TOTAL		$164,057.70

8. At the Monterey Institute, HILLAR taught twelve (12) courses/workshops, including courses on human trafficking and tactical counter terrorism. The Monterey Institute hired HILLAR based upon his purported experience and credentials including, but not limited to, his experience in the U.S. Army Special Forces, and his educational background including a Ph.D.
9. During his tenure at the University of Oregon, HILLAR taught approximately eighteen (18) courses and workshops on topics including human trafficking, international drug smuggling, drug trafficking, international drug trafficking and tactical counter terrorism. The University of Oregon hired HILLAR based upon his purported "real world" experience serving in the U.S. Army.
10. HILLAR provided the University of Oregon with a resume that included false information in order to secure employment with the university and later provided, on at least one occasion, another resume that included false information in order to continue teaching for compensation at the University. That resume contained information that Hillar served in the U.S. Army from 1962- 1990.
11. In addition to teaching at these two universities, HILLAR gave speeches to law enforcement and public safety organizations including, among others, the California Fire Chief's Association for compensation. The California Fire Chief's Association hired HILLAR to speak based on his purported experience as a retired Colonel in the U.S. military and his educational credentials, including his Ph.D.
